If you are under 18 travelling alone, these are your rights:

- You can apply for international protection
- You can be reunited with your family in another European member state
- While your application is being considered you cannot be returned to your country of origin
- You have the right for a guardian to be appointed to help you
- You have the right to medical care
- You have the right to go to school
- You have the right to be accommodated

Our staff provides counselling on exercising your legal and social rights and consultation on carrying out your Best Interest Assessment
